

Mallie Romanowski

External Affairs Manager

Coriell Institute for Medical Research

Mallie Romanowski has nearly a decade of experience in New Jersey state government, politics, and public affairs. She is currently the External Affairs Manager at the Coriell Institute for Medical Research, a leading biomedical research institute focused on rare diseases, cancer, aging, infectious diseases, and personalized medicine. She began her career as Deputy Director of Communications for Enroll America and has held roles such as Director of Communications for Majority Leader Greenwald, the City of Philadelphia, and Hunger Free New Jersey.